Good News

Daley

I want to take a leap of faith escape it all , but it
Seems like there's no relief whichever way I fall , no
And it's more than I can take
Can somebody show me
How I'm supposed to feel, yeah
Cause I'm looking for the light
But there's no silver line
In the headlines that I'm readingSo somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it againThere's something missing in this world of you and I
And we won't find it until we open our eyes
And we all want the same
Love without the pain
Truth without the blame
But we're stuck inside the storm
Dying to be reborn
When's it gonna changeSo somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it againI need a minute to think, need peace of mind
Will it ever be simple? Oh, no... Oh, no...So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Ohh ohh
So somebody stop, somebody, somebody give me the good newsSo somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it againI need a minute to think, need peace of mind
Will it ever be simple? Oh, no... Oh, no...So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
