

Crush

Otep

Shhh, it's ok
I'm right here
I promise
I won't leave you
Everything will be ok
I wont
Leave you
Ever

Don't be afraid!
Sweet, little stray!

Don't be afraid

I see you
In your Sunday best
I see you
Feathering your nest

And oh, how I liked you
You were my very own

Oh, how I liked you!
So, I followed you home

I see you
Day to day
I see you
And I love the way
Your lips suck that cigarette
I see you
Haven't seen me yet

And oh, how I liked you
Your were my very own
Oh, how I like you
Even as I broke your bones

Tell
Me

Please
Does it hurt?

Me
Please
Does it hurt?

You were my very own
Oh, how I liked you!
You were my very own
Mine alone

I made it so special for you
A bed of roses for you to bloom

I see you
Opening your mouth
I see you
Absent of doubt
I see you
Will never forget
The night your life was mine to collect

And oh, how I liked you
You were my very own
Oh, how I liked you
As I covered you with stones

Please
Does it hurt?

Please
Does it hurt?

If I can't have you no one can
You'll stay with me among the damned
To keep you warm, I'll hold you tight
The fragrance of a graveyard night
Will remind us of unending love
& I'll forgive you chosen one

No, no. don't say those things

Don't you say a fucking word!
Don't you know it fucking hurts?
Don't you say a fucking word!
Don't you know it fucking hurts?

Crush!
Crush!

You're ignoring me now

Oh, how I loved you!
You were my very own!
Oh, how I loved you!
You were mine all alone!
Oh, how I loved you!
You were mine to control!
Oh, how I loved you!
Eyes & mouth packed with mud
