

Following You

Chumbawamba

Lilac growing up the walls
This sunny afternoon is ours after all
The sip, sip, sip of the dripping tap
Raise the pirate flag and laugh

This town as ugly as sin
Hidden from our secret garden
We make it up as we go along
Sometimes it turns into a song, this song

Don't ask me what needs doin'
When there is so much to do
Don't ask me where I'm goin'
'Cause I'm just following you, following you

We took back this bit of space
And made it into a different place
Now there's a promise in your eyes
And there'll be breakfast when you rise

Don't ask me what needs doin'
When there is so much to do
Don't ask me where I'm goin'
'Cause I'm just following you, following you
