

Am I the Song

Lianna Rose

Funny how life can make you feel, a little uneasy
Funny how life can make your chest feel, all uptight
And Iâ€™m running through these streets and Iâ€™m gasping for air
As I fall to my knees
And I stare at the bright blue and I smile
Cause I wonder what its like

Am I the song, or am I the dancer
Please donâ€™t be long
I need an answer

Funny how life can make you feel a little unsure
And no matter what path you choose thereâ€™s always a vampire
Sucking your soul for more
And I want someone to protect me, someone I can trust
But I cant even trust myself
And I want so much to live and love and give
But I canâ€™t find no one else

Am I the song, or am I the dancer
Please donâ€™t be long, I need an answer
Am I the song, or am I the dancer
Please donâ€™t be long, I need an answer
Am I the song, or am I the dancer
