Sky Starts Falling

Doves

Oh who am I supposed to be?
I can't be sure that the next one will see me
And if the sky starts falling on the street outside
The only thing that satisfies
If the sky starts falling on the heads outside
The only thing that keeps me alive
If you see her again, be sure to say hello
Be sure to send my love
Did she seem like before, could you seem above it all?
Be sure to send my love
Wake up, waking up to see
That it's a sign, what will be will be
And if the sky starts falling on the street outside
The only thing that satisfies
If the sky starts falling on the heads outside

The only thing that keeps me alive, alive
I swear I heard her call, call my name
I swear I heard her call, can I move on?
If you see her again, be sure to say hello
Be sure to send my love
Did she seem like before, can't you seem above it all?
Be sure to send my love
I swear I heard her call, call my name
I swear I heard her call, can I move on?
Did she call herself a friend?
Don't call on me again, don't call on me again
Did she seem like before, did she seem above it all?
Be sure to send my love

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/