Love of Ivah

Calla

Fear innocence
I won't be cheated
Still in a sense
It's all You needed
If I catch You crawling home
I'm sorry You did it
And I'm sorry to see You goThey set You up to fall
For get it
Chances are You won't
Remember itIf they asked if You crawled home
I'll say that You didn't
But I'll be sorry to see You goOh my my Oh my my
I waitI don't know why I hear them every second of my life
On my mindI hope I never see You in another life
I just might
Try seeking shelter underneath my skin
If You like
Try telling someone with a simple grinI don't know why I hear them every second of my life
On my mindI hope I never see You in another life
I just might
Try seeking shelter underneath my skin
If You like
Try telling someone with a simple grin
