

Moment Of Weakness

Matt White

Hey I know you're mad at me
I'm on my knees and begging please
Just stay with me Temptation's there have made me weak
I didn't think you cared for me
Like the way you do So please understand
And give me one more chance 'Cause I don't know what I did that night
It was a moment of weakness
I hope that we can be alright
It's just a moment of weakness Wasted can't remember things
I drank too much i really think
This is a bad dream People make mistakes, you need to know
Why can't you let it go?
Like I want you to So please understand
And give me one more chance 'Cause I don't know what I did that night
It was a moment of weakness
I hope that we will be alright
It's just a moment of weakness Do you hear what I'm saying? Ooh
It didn't mean a thing, I know you're right Oh, why was a moment of weakness again?
I just need some forgiveness
Oh won't you help me get through this now?
It's just a moment of weakness It was my moment of weakness
I just need some forgiveness from you
Oh, oh, oh, oh Ooh, just a moment of weakness
Ooh, just a moment of weakness
