Dust Be The Destiny

Devildriver

Run to the river, run to the sea
Cast my body down, baptize me
He came for my sorrow, he came for my pain
Through the sun he came for the rainOver the ocean and back to the sea
A new day is dawning and hope caries me
There's a hole in my head that lets the rain in
There ain't no laws for the brave ones, oh noThere ain't no silence now for the crazy
There ain't no help for the lazy, oh no
I ain't never stole to get high
I ain't never done wrong to get byDirt is what made me
So dust be the destiny
Dirt is what made me
So dust be the destinyAs we walk now with cross to bare
It's a rough game, you gotta play fair
Revolt against the reason
The man is coming any season nowI ain't never stole to get high
I ain't never done wrong to get by
I think therefore I'm dangerous
I ain't never stole to get highDirt is what made me
So dust be the destiny
Dirt is what made me
So dust be the destinyGoddamn
GoddamnDirt is what made me
So dust be the destiny
Dirt is what made me
So dust be the destiny, be the destiny
