

Deadly Kiss

Kyuss

Look into my face now
Stare into my eyes
Hell fire in my veins
In my veins, in my veins
In my vein, yeah I can see through your eyes
Well it's no disguise to me
I can see through the lies
No one can make a fool of me Drowning in your loneliness
Want to bring me down with you
No one buys your innocence
Gonna break your walls in two
Wall in two, wall in two No one buys it, no one wanted to
With you, you, fuck you
Dig your grave for two Walk my way
Get out of my way
Well I wanted you
I saw right through ya Well I'm your man
You'll understand
You'll pay the price
To live in a paradise Look into my face now
Stare into my eyes
Hell fire in my veins
In my veins, in my veins
In my vein, yeah I can see through your eyes
Well it's no disguise to me
I can see through the lies, yeah
No one can make a fool of me I'm drowning in your loneliness
Want to bring me down with you
No one buys your innocence
Gonna break your walls in two
Wall in two, wall in two No one buys it, no one wanted to
With you, you, fuck you
Dig your grave for two
