Fall Into You

Sarah Kelly

Time stand still
In this moment
Dawn arise
From nights keepingAll my love
Stored up treasure
Heart awake from your sleepingAnd all I really want to say is I love you
And all I really want to do is be next to youHere on the edge
Of what lies ahead
Ready to fall into you
Fall into youI'm not afraid
Of change or of pain
Ready to fall into you
Fall into youSearching heart
Search is over
Peace has proven you real
Guarded heart, Guard this love now
As faithfulness is revealedAnd all I really want to say is I love you
And all I really want to do is be next to youHere on the edge
Of what lies ahead
Ready to fall into you
Fall into youI'm not afraid
Of change or of pain
Ready to fall into you
Fall into you
