

The Pearl

Fleming & John

Oh, look I've found it, oh I've really found it
How could such a thing be happening to me?
Oh, please don't drop it, I'd die if you lost it
You see it means the world to me Now everything we ever wanted
Lies within our reach
Patiently anticipating
The world lies at our feet It could be the pearl
It could be our hope, our dream, our life
It could be the pearl
The end of all our pain and strife, could be the pearl Run, keep on running, oh I hear them coming
How could they try to take what is ours?
Please run faster, oh they're right behind us
How much farther can we go? It possesses me, controls me
It makes me run and it makes me kill
The very thing that made me strong
Has taken all my will It could be the pearl
It could be our hope, our dream, our life
It could be the pearl
The end of all our pain and strife, could be the pearl It could be the pearl
It could be our hope, our dream, our life
It could be the pearl
The end of all our pain and strife, could be the pearl Oh, I must take it, throw it in the ocean
Far, far away from me
We were happy, oh we were so happy
When things were the way they used to be It could be the pearl
It could be our hope, our dream, our life
It could be the pearl
The end of all our pain and strife It could be the pearl
Hope, our dream, our life
It could be the pearl
The end of all our pain and strife, could be the pearl It could be the pearl
Or it could be a demon in disguise
