18

5 sos

All I wanna do
Is do me
Feel me?
Come on
Next time y'all niggas try to compare me
Remember I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all underestimate me
(Don't do that)
Recognize I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
I brush the dirt off my shoulder
Push through the city in an all pearl rover
One day I wanna be just like my nigga hova
But they don't wanna let me be
Haters they been hatin'
Sayin' what I can't be
But I'mma stay up on they bumper
Keeping the radios jumpin' all summer
Havin' your girl screamin' just to take a picture
I'm settin' up my features
My bank account's reachin'
And everybody's peeking
Next time y'all niggas try to compare me
Remember I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all underestimate me
(Don't wanna that no no)
Recognize I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
This is a funny situation
These guys I grew up havin' crazy admiration for
Got the feelin' that I'm tryna replace them
But that ain't the case
I'm in a whole 'nother place

Tryna build my estate
I gotta keep my nikes nice and clean
Keep the women up to 25 chasin' me
Got Mr. Davis pushin' buttons in the captains seat
That means more dough before I'm too old
And basically before
Next time y'all niggas try to compare me
Remember I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all underestimate me
(Don't do that)
Recognize I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Yeah yo Mario
Don't let 'em get you heated homie
Just only go harder
Let 'em underestimate you like you Antonio Traver
Plus the dudes that be hatin' is as old as your father
You got plenty time you gone get plenty shine
I don't pay 'em any mind
They been tryna criticize
But you can't live your life through another nigga eyes
I'm the best and you young boys know so
I'mma fall back and let my young boy blow
Next time y'all niggas try to compare me
Remember I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all underestimate me
(Don't do that)
Recognize I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all niggas try to compare me
Remember I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
Next time y'all underestimate me
(Don't do that)
Recognize I just turned 18
That means I got 7 years to catch up
So what's up?
