

Thousand Clouds

Soror Dolorosa

Anyone else could say
That in life, we catch, we trust
And we believe in nothing finally
Anyone else could say
That in life, we catch, we trust
And we believe in nothing finally
In everyone and every smile
We look for momentum sensuality
Her sex is available
Her skin like an obsession
Abused and disabused
Her sex is available
Her skin like an obsession
Abused and disabused
Disabused at all
Could anybody else say
That my life is just better or
A running illusion like a thousand clouds
A running illusion
And now close to my heart, a deep feeling
Of delight, for one hour
