

Anywhere I Hang My Hat

Robin Gibb

Having been so rich and drinking wine
I saw people think on borrowed time
I said there's no excuse so what's the use
No man gives a damn so turn me loose If I am in love
It's something I'm conscious of
If so I'll please her
And all for I'm conscious of If so I'm right
I've not been imagining
That what is happening
Is surely my own
So anyone can come and use my phone
Anywhere I hang my hat is home
Some folks think it's made of bricks and stone (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I hang my hat is home If I'm in love
It's something I'm conscious of
If so I must please her
And all for I'm conscious of If so I'm right
I've not been imagining
That what is happening
Is surely my own
So anyone can come and use my phone (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I hang my hat is home
Anywhere I hang my hat is home
Anywhere I hang my hat is home
