Parachute

Element Eighty

How far will you go for me till you break
I know you will leave me alone again
I know you want me to be everything to you but I need something more than this Inside of me
All my life I've waited for you to find me Taken from me and now I'll never know just how it feels to need you
How far will you go for me till you break
I know you will leave me alone again
but I need something more than this Burning in me
All my life I've waited to break this silence Expectations
and will I ever know just how it feels to forget

How far will you go for me till you break
I know you will leave me alone again
I know you want me to be everything to you
but I need something more than this Inside of my head I know you understand
And now I am bending cause you will never understand
Right in front of me
All this time I never could see (Right in front of me)
Right in front of me
All this time I never could see (It's right in front of me)
How far will you go for me till you break
I know you will leave me alone again
but I need something more than this Right in front of me
