

Abandon! Abandon!

The Jealous Sound

You could kill me with kindness
Could you cure me from blindness?
And if not, then help me medicate
It seems I caught cold
When I was two years old
It won't seem to go away
For the first time in a long time
Feeling better today
Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed
All the doubters surround me
And their whispers astound me
And I think I hear my name
So I call out from the bottle
In the sunny and the startled
But everything is still the same
Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed
Don't bail out, abandon
Don't throw your hands in
The burning mistake
Is your constant companion
It's your last chance
It's your window
Don't fuck up you can't lose
And it's everything you need
Do you tear the bandage off
And you clear your throat and cough
If you can't move
Then just believe
Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed
So bail out, abandon
Don't throw your hands in
The burning mistake
Is your constant companion
Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed
