

Monique

Kiko

When they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understand
Monique, Monique
I've hungered so for this
Monique, Monique
The wonder of your kiss
Monique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or care
But why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my hand
And when they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understand
Monique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or care
But why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my hand
When they see Monique
I'm sure they'll understand
