Let's Run

The Eagle and Child

(Verse 1)
Though I will walk through fire and I will crawl in mud,
I'll never shake the sacrifice of blood.
You are the strongest and You are my promised Lord!

(Verse 2)
In every darkened dwell and every shadowed den
My God will spread like fire to the meadows end.
You are the strongest and You are my promised Lord!

(Pre-Chorus)
I'm beginning to make sense of all the ways You show
The unending love for us - perpetual hope

(Chorus)
Holding the hearts of the broken
Seeing the souls of the poor
You hold the hands of Your children
And lead them to victory's door
Creator of beauty and purpose
You see the stars from above
I am a new transformation
Knowing the founder of love

(Verse 3)
So I will fight the flood and I will run through rain
You send the current rushing through my veins
You are the strongest and You are my promised Lord

(Verse 4)
When we are trained by trial and we are forged by flame
Then we can rest our eyes on heaven's claim
You are the strongest and You are my promised Lord

(Pre-Chorus)
I'm beginning to make sense of all the ways You show
The unending love for us - it carries us home

(Chorus)
Holding the hearts of the broken

Seeing the souls of the poor
You hold the hands of Your children
And lead them to victory's door
Creator of beauty and purpose
You see the stars from above
I am a new transformation
Knowing the founder of love

(Bridge 1)
O to taste the sweetness of Your remedy
O to see beyond the great divide
O that you'd include me in Your legacy
O that You would call me to Your side
Until our worlds collide
And this drop of life
Will not vanish from the ground
But it will land in place in Your raging seas
Let's run!

(Bridge 2)
To the lonely with the broken hearts - let's run!
To the desolate and cast aside - let's run!
Let's run to the cynics who misjudge His heart - let's run!
Let's run to the wayward with the hateful minds - let's run!

(Verse 5)
When my flesh does fall and my eyes have closed
You will light the long and crowded road
You are the strongest and You are my promised Lord

Lyrics Submitted by Matteo Magcalas

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/