Don't Cry For Pain

Ana Johnsson

Hey man, here's my plan
I'm gonna break it
Hey you, don't be sad
Here's your chance, so take it
If you slap my face, if you don't call
Honestly, I don't care at allMaybe I'm a bit complicated
All I know isI don't cry for pain, don't cry from fear
You know that
I don't cry in the rain, no, not a tear
You know thatBefore you leave, when you go
I think you ought to know
Don't cry for pain, I only cry for loveHey now, dry them tears
You know we'd never make it
Cause you caught my eye, not my heart
And play it safe, no, Im not that smartI never meant, to be this complicated
All I know isI don't cry for pain, don't cry from fear
You know that
I don't cry in the rain, no, not a tear
You know thatBefore you leave, when you go
I think you ought to know
Don't cry for pain, I only cry for loveI need something making me defenseless
I dont want another waste of time
You cant hurt me so, Im sure this cant be rightI don't cry for pain, don't cry from fear
You know that
I don't cry in the rain, no, not a tear
You know that
Before you leave, when you go
I think you ought to knowI don't cry for pain, don't cry from fear
You know that
I don't cry in the rain, no, not a tear
You know thatBefore you leave, when you go
I think you ought to know
Don't cry for pain, I only cry for love
