

Follow You

Christon Gray

Let me talk about the One
Who taught me how to love
I saw Him on the water
He was bidding me to come
With every step I hesitate
And my faith ran away You're everything I need
I'm never letting go
You're right next to me
So take the lead Oh Lord
I follow You through the darkness
Will You take away my fear
I will follow You when the sun shines
And the shadow is drawing near
Down the long and winding road
You'll always lead me home
If the water looks too deep
And the desert looks too dry
He said, "Tell me why you're Walking when I taught you how to fly"
With every step I take
I feel the weight go away I couldn't even see
When I didn't think of you
You thought of me
So take the lead Oh Lord
I follow You through the darkness
Will You take away my fear
I will follow You when the sun shines
And the shadow is drawing near
Down the long and winding road
You'll always lead me home
When I turn away
Starting to change
You still remain unshakable
Calling my name
To come in from the rain
You'll be okay I follow You through the darkness
As you took away my fear
I'll follow You in the valley
As You wipe away my ears

I follow You when the sun shines
And the cloud have disappeared
It's been a long and winding road
Thank You, for bringing me home(3 times). Thank You
