

All My Heroes Have Failed Me

Dead to Fall

Up and out, I never regretted a thing
Take a glance from the inside, it isn't what you think
This is it, this is everything I have
So between you and me, give up all fucking hope I've got the answer, so save your fucking explanation
This is the last time I'll suffer through your exploitation
Harvest truth and save it for your revelation
I've lost all trust and I've finally had the realization All my heroes have failed me
And all your heroes will fail you Give up hope, give up all fucking hope
Give up hope, give up all fucking hope I don't care and I'm through hearing you justify
You've given up and I know you've fucking died inside
We've burned it all and everything it signifies
I've reached my breaking point and I finally realize All my heroes have failed me
And all your heroes will fail you
All my heroes have failed me
And all your heroes will fucking fail you, fail me, fail you Give up hope, give up hope
Give up hope, give up all fucking hope I'm sick of trying and I'll never put my trust in you
No more heroes, no promise of something new
It's over now, there's no more damage that you can do
You're dead to me because me and you are finally through All my heroes have failed me
And I have given up hope
This is the last time
I ever place my trust in someone else
And I have given up all fucking hope
