Modeify The Pronunciation

The Devil Wears Prada

Now that it's here, it's too late
The whole wide world
Is fearing the wrong things
Falling down a cold staircase
And persistently I darken my shadow
To cover up regret but the train tracks still lie straight
It'll be the end of deception
Vertical to the horizon
It'll be the end of deception
This is the gun to the manipulation
Bring the end
(Ow)
Architecture is falling
(Yeah)
Denial, a repetitive trait
Repetition, the walls
Betrayal, a repetitive trait
I thought this died so long ago
But reoccurring shame eats at me
She eats at me, she walked away
I'm here for forgiveness one more time
I'm slurring a compilation of words
I pray for your forgiveness
One more time
I pray for this
(One more time)
I'm asking for your forgiveness
God lay her to rest
