Fight The Feeling

Luis Fonsi

A sucker for your loving, a sucker for your kissing It's like a heatwave in July, every time we're eye to eye A sucker for your rubbing, sucker for your twisting You take me to the danger zone but leave me shaking to the bone Sweet like honey, banging like a bomb Turning me on, you're turning me on, you're turning me on Can I have it? Can I touch it? Now, you really gotta let it show 'Cause I feel like I'm about to blow When you act like that I can't fight the feeling Grab it? Can I love it? Now, you really gotta let me know 'Cause I don't know how to take it slow When you act like that I can't fight the feeling A sucker for your touching, a sucker for your teasing But I'm not out to sneak a feel, I wanna get to freak for real A sucker for your hugging, a sucker for your squeezing I bet you feel it all inside, so, let me know I'm qualified Sweet like honey, banging like a bomb Turning me on, you're turning me on, you're turning me on Can I have it? Can I touch it? Now, you really gotta let it show 'Cause I feel like I'm about to blow When you act like that I can't fight the feeling Grab it? Can I love it? Now, you really gotta let me know 'Cause I don't know how to take it slow When you act like that, I can't fight the feeling Baby, I'm excited, gotta have it I can't deny it, gotta have it I don't know how to fight it, gotta have it Turning me on, you're turning me on Love the way you flaunt it, gotta have it Girl, I really want it, gotta have it 'Cause you're turning me on You're turning me on, you're turning me on
