Days Of The New

I can see the orange sky in front of me
I can see things you'll never see
People say it's all a fuckin' dream
But I can say words you couldn't speak
Is it me, can you believe?
You'll never live the world I live
Is it me? It is only me
I can only live a world to live
Break away from you, shattered beliefs
Detaching from my body, desperate in grief
I have changed the world in front of me
One against all, I'm starving this world
Is it me, do you want me?
You think you can have me
Say you love me, you want me
I'm saving my money 'cause I don't pay to breathe
I'm not afraid to live, not afraid to die
I can only give what I see inside
You can only take what I give of me

You can only win when I'm not afraid to lose
Subjected to you mother of nature
Limited to the color of your eyes
Drained by the one you call your lover
She don't care if you live or die
Is it me, do you want me?
You think you can have me
Say you love me, you want me
I'm saving my money 'cause I don't pay to breathe
I'm not afraid to live, not afraid to die
I can only give what I see inside
You can only take what I give of me
You can only win when I'm not afraid to lose
You could only win when I'm not afraid to lose
Well, I don't have a problem, I evolved
Sometimes there are always problems
Well, I don't have a problem, I stand above, yeah
