

Easy Way Out

Dylan LeBlanc

Indecision, poor decisions, led me to believe
That you live and you learn till you earn
Your own worst enemyCross my heart and hope to die
Has she got somethin' better

Misery loves company while we're in this togetherAll has been said, and all has been done
Take a long look, you were the only oneThe easy way out, it's a dangerous path
No one knows it like I do
And beat the door down, and shatter the glass
But you better be sure what it leads to...

What it leads to...The lash I felt from the Bible belt brought me down on my knees
When I thought that I could stand on my own two feet
Thorazine dreams and thundering, and dangerous weather

And in my head I'll soon be dead, or soon feelin' betterAll has been said, and all has been done
Takin' on the pain, you were the only oneThe easy way out, it's a dangerous path
No one knows it like I do
Beat the door down, shatter the glass
But you better be sure what it leads to...

What it leads to...The easy way out, it's a dangerous path
No one knows it like I do
When you beat the door down, shatter the glass
But you better be sure what it leads to...

What it leads to...What it leads to...What it leads to.
