Heaven

Michael English

Love without measure
Space without time
Life with no crying
Will one day be mineHearts never breaking
Hands that don't fight
Days that don't end with
The darkness of nightThe lamb and the lion
Will walk side by side
In a world where freedom
AbidesWindows of glory swing open wide
Shower down blessings
And shine down a light
On my soulI do believe
Oh, can't you see
That's what Heaven will be like
Oh, that's what Heaven will beFriends that don't leave you
Smiles that don't fade
Nobody's hurtin'
No one's afraidNo hungry children
Loved ones don't die
No sad farewells
There'll be no more goodbyesWindows of glory swing open wide
Shower down blessings
And shine down a light
On my soulI do believe
Oh, can't you see
That's what Heaven will beAll the burdens and longings
We bring to this place
Disappear in the moment
We look at the love on His faceOh, I do believe
That's what Heaven will be like
That's what Heaven will be'Cause that's what Heaven will be like
That's what Heaven will beOhh, never [Incomprehensible] lonely
Oh, that's what Heaven will be
Ohh, ohhOh, that's what Heaven will beWindows of glory swing open wide
Shower down blessings
And shine down a light
On my soulOh, I do believe
That's what Heaven will beAll the burdens and longings

We bring to this place
Disappear in the moment
We look at the love on His faceI do believe
I do believe
That's what Heaven will beWindows of glory swing open wide
Shower down blessings
On my soulOh, I know
That's what Heaven will be
