

Wake Up

Cryptic Slaughter

Don't you tell me that this is the end

 The end of our story

 Been meaning so long to find out

 What we are

 But what have we left to prove

 There's no more mystery

 Nothing is cute anymore, anymore

 Gave up so much time baby (uh huh)

 Wheres our rewarding (uh huh)

 Being in love shouldnt feel like a chore

 I tried so hard to walk away

 But I cant let you go

 The things that we go through cuz of love

 I should realize its over (cant you see)

 This fantasy's turning into a bad dream

 And I just wanna wake up

 Wanna wake up

 I tried so hard to be kind

 Keeping my composure

 To see if ya'd wait

 Where I would when I could

 Communication block on a dull road to nowhere

 Our seperate ways wont get us where we wanna go

 We cant go on baby (uh huh)

 Feeding this torture (uh huh)

 Being in love shouldnt feel like a chore

 I tried so hard to walk away

 But I cant let you go

 The things that we go through cuz of love

 I should realize its over (cant you see)

 This fantasy's turning into a bad dream

 And I just wanna wake up

 Wanna wake up

 You were all I needed

 Now your all I'm leaving

 I just cant go back

 No...

 The things that we go through cuz of love

I should realize its over (cant you see)
This fantasy's turning into a bad dream
And I just wanna wake up
Wanna wake up
The things
Love
Over
