

My Daughter My Sons

The Obsessed

My children dear, won't you lend me your ear

I got a song of love to sing you

Live your own life,

Be honest and kind

Always speak your mind

My first born son, we saw new horizons

And the strength and love you brought here

Has made me wiser

Adventurous child,

May your heart guide your journey

And I'm so proud

To see your glory

Angel speaks with her mind

Paint me a dream in purple light

This emerald locket, look inside

Sun rays to warm my life

Angel speaks with her eyes

Take me on a magic ride

In your castle we will hide

And on the clouds we will ride
