

It Goes Off

Skybombers

I know a doctor,
Think he can save you,
You gotta believe me,
I'm your one chance left,

Twelve twenty AM,
Spencer's distaste, yeh,
You don't have a choice now,
I'm your one chance left,

I said little cousin,
Well are you ready to go,
I said little cousin,
I want you ready you know,

It goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)
Oh, it goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)
And that's the way it goes,

Lady lady, trying hard to forget,
'Bout the time that I met you, but,
Lady lady, make me feel this regret,
Since the first time I met you, but,

I know a preacher,
And he can absolve you,
You tell me the truth now,
I'm your one chance left,

Well you should believe me,
Can you hear the sunrise,
They scream out for you now,
I'm your one chance left,

I said little cousin,
Well are you ready to go,
I said little cousin,
Well are you ready you know,

It goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)

It goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)
And that's the way you go,

Lady lady, trying hard to forget,
'Bout the time that I met you, but,
Lady lady, you make me feel this regret,
Since the time I let you, but
Lady lady, you lose control,
You got no place but you got no soul,
Lady lady, trying hard to forget,
Yeow!

I said little cousin,
Well are you ready to go,
I said little cousin,
I want that ready you know,

It goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)
It goes off, (c'mon, c'mon, c'mon)
And that's the way it goes,
