

Be Gentle on Me

Amy Rivard

BE GENTLE ON ME

So many times, I've opened the door

Just to have it closed again

So many times, I've cried on the floor

To find comfort in the pain again

Give me a time, I'm no longer alone

Teach me there's nothing to hide Be Gentle on me

It's not easy you see

To let you take my heart to where it wants to be

I bruise easily

There was a time, I thought I knew truth

But I was surrounded by lies

There was a time, I laughed in my youth

But now I'm no longer suprised

Give me a time to believe once again

Teach me that love will survive Be Gentle on me

It's not easy you see

To let you take my heart to where it wants to be

I bruise easily These walls were meant to be broken down

I won't make you climb

If you can love me honestly

We'll live in the sublime

Be Gentle on me

It's not easy you see

To let you take my heart to where it wants to be

I bruise easily

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>