

A Deathless Song

Parkway Drive

Let me beat in your heart
Be your drum of war and love
Let me hide in your arms
Be my cage, my key, my lockLet our bones collide
Until the light falls like anvils from our eyes
When our dreams ignite
Disappear in their fireBe my deathless song
Fill my aching lungsBreathe your life into me
Because I drown in your shadow
Like salt in the rain
If my fear is tomorrow
Your memory's the fight in my veinsLet me beat in your heart
Be your drum of war and love
Let me hide in your arms
Be my cage, my key, my lockLet our bones collide
Until the light falls like anvils from our eyes
When our dreams ignite
Disappear in their fireBe my open sky
Fill these wild eyesBreathe your life into me
Because I drown in your shadow
Like salt in the rain
If my fear is tomorrow
Then your memory's the fight in my veins
