Count On Me

Fool's Garden

You came from out of nowhere Where will you go? It seems you've always been there What do we know? You've put your life in our hands Will we ever know why You're so pure, you just say what you're thinking You make everything so deepIn your smile, in your eyes I can see so much of my life Let your dreams always lead I'll be there for you whenever you need Count on meWhen you're weary and troubled And when all their rules try to put you down Keep your head always high and don't care what they say Be yourself and ignore what they're thinking The most beautiful souls sometimes bleedIn your smile, in your eyes I can see so much of my life Let your dreams always lead I'll be there for you whenever you need Count on meThey will shake you Try to break you But i know that they'll never succeed Cause you are strong Yes you're so strongIn your smile, in your eyes I can see so much of my life Let your dreams always lead I'll be there for you whenever you need Count on me Count on me Count on me
