

Cruel Melody

Black Light Burns

If I could paint your picture
I'd paint you as the sea
I'd let you become the tide
If I could fall into you
I'd let you swallow me
So I could see you from the inside
And it's a cruel melody
That you sing when I'm away
Trying to find where the sun shines
In a land that's turning gray
And it's a cruel memory
To look back on who we were
'cause my past is a poison
And I'll never find a cure
If I could break a promise
I'd tell 1000 lies
To have you look at me again
But your heart is empty of me
I see it in your eyes
It wasn't meant for me to win
And it's a cruel melody
That you sing when I'm away
Trying to find where the sun shines
In a land that's turning gray
And it's a cruel memory
To look back on who we were
'cause my past is a poison
And I'll never find a cure
Take me away, I might as well be yours

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>