

Watching the River Flow

Bob Dylan

What's the matter with me
I don't have much to say
Daylight sneakin' through the window
And I'm still in this all night cafe Walkin' to and fro beneath the moon
Out to where the trucks are rollin' slow
Sit down on this bank of sand
And watch the river flow Wish I was back in the city
Instead of this old bank of sand
With the sun beating down over the chimney tops
And the one I love so close at hand If I had wings and I could fly
I know where I would go
But right now I'll just sit here so contentedly
And watch the river flow People disagreeing on all just about everything, yeah
Makes you stop and lo wonder why
Why only yesterday I saw somebody on the street
Who just couldn't help but cry Oh, this ol' river keeps on rollin', though
No matter what gets in the way and which way the wind does blow
And as long as it does I'll just sit here
And watch the river flow People disagreeing everywhere you look
Makes you wanna stop and read a book
Why only yesterday I saw somebody on the street
That was really shook Well, but this ol' river keeps on rollin', though
No matter what gets in the way and which way the wind does blow
And as long as it does I'll just sit here
And watch the river flow Watch the river flow, watchin' the river flow
Watchin' the river flow
But I'll just sit down on this bank of sand
And watch the river flow
