

Who Are You Now?

Brandtson

Conversation one, counting clicks on second hands it's only just begun, Trust in me to trust in you to take my breath away, surrounding me with questions that I've answered for time and again, This time I won't be wrong, I've got your second chance
and it won't be long before you see yourself, Conversation two, holding on is, holding you again with breaking arms, Forget us and this second chance so you can break it off, Another finish with no end, another plan to start this up again, There's nothing left to say, we tried it your way,
This time I won't be wrong,
and it won't be long,
and you're always always questioning what I can't get wrong,
and it's not that long until you see yourself.
