When You're Alone

Fishboy

when you're alone you're not the only the one around it's just a feeling that you're having you can't tell youre up from down and in a moment you will look and you'll realize that you have found when you're alone you're not the only one aroundwhen you're in bed and oh you wake up in the morn and you can't hear a single person you can't hear a single word you room it hasn't been transported to a far off distant world when you're in bed and oh you wake up in the morn
when you're alone you're not the only the one around
we all feel it then and now
and in a moment you will look and you'll realize that you have found you're only lonely not the only one around when you're alone you're not the only one around
