Snow in July

Dakota Moon

Love was burning like the summer
We were lost in one another
Holding on, holding on
We could not escape the heat
Love was dangerous but sweet
And it was strongNow you're talking 'bout your freedom
What is that you say?
You suddenly declared to me
Your independence dayCaught me by surprise
Fog turning to ice
Well it ain't even cold baby
How could it snow in July?You led me to believe it
You found everything you needed
In my arms, for so long
I thought everything was fine
But now you're turning on a dime
And moving on, moving onWell I should have brought my sweater
For a chill is in the air
There's a sudden change of weather
For which I am not preparedCaught me by surprise
Fog turning to ice
Well it ain't even cold baby
How could it snow in July?Well I should have brought my sweater
For a chill is in the air
There's a sudden change of weather
For which I am not preparedCaught me by surprise
Fog turning to ice
Well it ain't even cold baby
How could it snow in July?Caught me by surprise
Oh
Ain't even cold baby
How could it snow in July?Caught me by surprise

Songwriters
More, Michael / Kirkpatrick, Wayne / Logan, Andy / Kennedy, Gordon ScottPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/