The Distance

Iron Eyes Cody

Bloodstains
On fake pictures
And it comes in waves
As the shouts turn into whispers
Thoughts keep running through her brain
Make the pounding in her heart be quicker
Says it all comes down to the run around
And as the book slips in her fingers

Says I donâ€™t really think the drugs theyâ€™ve got can Pull it off
So Iâ€™m gonna sell my blood
To a man I met in Simonâ€™s rock
Heâ€™s got a plan
To put me in a diamond top
And make a grand plain geriatric clam nostalgia rock

Shake into the car
Breaks in the door
Makes out 25 layinâ€™ on the floor
All prayinâ€™ to the lord
But the prayinâ€™s ignored
Sayinâ€™ that they shoulda been prayinâ€™ before any war
Awoke that night to the rains, the nuclear warninâ€™

And she said
Oh my souls gotten cold and lost
And Iâ€™m throwinâ€™ it off

Oh wonâ€™t you go make the most of a bad existence
Cause youâ€™re so
Much colder than she ever planned to live with

She says
Everybody knows the difference
Between right to try
And life and lies
And if you
Go the distance

Go the distance

I fall behind

With a sex addiction
And he states his dreams
And readinâ€™ online erotica fiction
And counts the places he ainâ€™t been
About relationships envisioned
Tabs tomorrow nights been a long time coming
If theyâ€™d have only listened

Shakinâ€™ in the night
Wakes and he writes
25 ways you could waste your life
Says he takes what he likes
Breaks with the line(?)
Makes for Boston with his fate decided
Says he prays that every thoughtâ€™s been pre-assigned to him

Causes its planned in and

Cause youâ€™re so

And she says
Everybodyâ€™s got commitments
Between right to try
And life and lives
And if you

Iâ€™ll fall behind
I fall behind
