Nobody's Business But My Own

Taj Mahal

This next song is a funny little song
About snow in the desertChampagne don't drive me crazy
Cocaine don't make me lazy
Ain't nobody's business but my ownCandy is dandy and liquor is quicker
You can drink all the liquor down at Costa Rica
Ain't nobody's business but my ownYou can ride a great big pink Cadillac to church on Sunday
You can hang around the house with your old lady on Monday
Ain't nobody's business but your ownMan I don't care what in the world that you do
As long as you do what you say you going to Ain't nobody's business but your ownNow, I know some of you cuties
You real fine cuties, you go stepping downtown
Just to hang aroundStanding on the corner
So the fellows will stare and say
"Oh, ain't she sweet?"Champagne don't drive me crazy
Cocaine don't make me lazy
Ain't nobody's business but my ownCandy is dandy and liquor is quicker
You can drink all the liquor down at Costa Rica
Ain't nobody's business but my ownYou can walk downtown in your birthday suit
I can see you coming out of the Bank Of America with a whole lotta loot
Ain't nobody's business but your ownNow, you know that cocaine's for horses now it ain't for men
The doctors said it'll kill me but they didn't say when Ain't nobody's business but your ownNow, you know sometime I put on my straw hat
And my stripe pants, my spanz baby
You know I'm not going trucking downtown
Standing on the corner so the fellas can stare and sayHey man, ain't you the brother in the '57 mercury
With the turnpike skirts and the chrome reverse wheels
The white wall tires and lights running the skirts
Was painted lime green with reversible lights in place
With windows that you can see out, can nobody see in
With four on the floor, 745 horsepower and a big stereo
Listening to Wolfman Jack say, "Ain't this X C I B, baby"Champagne don't drive me crazy
Cocaine don't make me lazy
Ain't nobody's business but my ownCandy is dandy and liquor is quicker
You can drink all the liquor down at Costa Rica
Ain't nobody's business but your own, but my ownCome on now let's try it, one, two, three
Now, champagne don't drive me crazy
Cocaine don't make me lazy
Ain't nobody's business but my ownSing it now
Candy is dandy and liquor is quicker

You can drink all the liquor down at Costa Rica
Ain't nobody's business but my ownOnce again
Champagne don't drive me crazy
Cocaine don't make me lazy
Ain't nobody's business but my ownCandy is dandy and liquor is quicker
You can drink all the liquor down at Costa Rica
Ain't nobody's business but my own
