

Down There

Savo

Looking down on the world through a hole in the fence. Looking down on the people with a solitary eye. Whats going on? Whats going on? Whats happening down there? All these people hurt each other and destroy what I gave them. And theyre lying, and theyre cheating, and theyre stealing and they take some more now. Now theyre raping, and theyre killing, and they pillage and its take, take, take some more. Ive finally lost all faith in the human race. No more patience, mercy its time to erase. Gonna end this, gonna send them, gonna send them down there. Disinfect the germs I created and make it whole again. Cause theyre lying, and theyre cheating, and theyre stealing and they take some more now. Now theyre raping, and theyre killing, and they pillage and its take, take, take some more. No more lying, no more cheating, no more stealing and no more raping. No more killing this is the end its my creation and I want it back now. No more lying. No more cheating. No more stealing and no more raping. Take. You take. You take it all. And its take, take, take some more.
