

This Time

Wayne Wonder

Sometimes I be doing road, doing road real hard
Sometimes that brings us together
You need some of my time, but turn this out
I am a rolling stone,
I never stay at home, oh, whoa
Dont think that I dont care,
I know none of the times Im never there
So let me sing this song baby
This time Ill, make a sacrifice
This time, everyday Ill call you twice
This time Im gonna make it right
Make it better this time, this time, this time
Hse gets so emotional, but I know deep down inside shes yearning
Shes growing up for a change
So I gotta give her the time of day
Im coming for you baby so make sure that you are ready
I gotta ease the burden cause the burden getting heavy
I dont wanna shake it boy like the new orleans levi
Lets make it a classic like the 74 chevy...
Baby we can make our perfect pair. I swear
This time Ill, make a sacrifice
This time, everyday Ill call you twice
This time Im gonna make it right
Make it better this time, this time, this time
I am a rolling stone,
I never stay at home, oh, whoa
Dont think that I dont care,
I know none of the times Im never there
So let me sing this song baby
[Chorus] x 2
This time Ill, make a sacrifice
This time, everyday Ill call you twice
This time Im gonna make it right
Make it better this time, this time, this time.
