Into The Sky

Black Tide

Every night I pray for a dream you star in
And every night I pray for a chance
You'll be there when I wakeThe truth of it is Nothing I do will bring you back
So I'm waiting for my ride up into the skyAnd I will meet you there
I will meet you there
And I will meet you there
I will meet you thereYou left such a strong resonance
Just to feel you all around
I know you're watching over us
Like the angel you've always beenThe truth of it is
Nothing I feel will bring you back
So I'm waiting for my ride up into the skyAnd I will meet you there
I will meet you there
And I will meet you there
I will meet you thereI love you so much more than
Just the heart beating in my chest
I love you so much more than just this heart
I love you so much more than
Just the heart beating in my chest
I love you so much more than just this heartThe truth of it is
Nothing I feel will bring you back
So I'm waiting for my ride up into the skyAnd I will meet you there (in the sky)
I will meet you there
And I will meet you there (in the sky)
I will meet you thereI love you so much more than just this heart
I love you so much more than just this
