

If I Only Had a Heart

Ozma

i'd give my heart
if you'd give your attention but when i look there's just an open trench (and baby)i can't stand to see you, girl showing off your silver party dress no, you can't come over now the house ain't neat my room's a mess i'd give my heart to just be in contention but i sold it off at the baseball card convention i can't stand to see you, girl rubbing motor oil on all your joints no, i ain't no straight A wiz but i could learn that's not the point (i'll plot my points)i'd give my heart if i had one for giving
your lips could keep me living i'd give my heart (i'd give my heart) and always be forgiving
i'd give my heart (i'd give my heart)
