

Holy Love

The-dream

It's not a secret
When you were never invited No lie
I'm a rollin' stone
I stay ultra high
It's gotten harder to live
Easier to die I'm a rollin' stone
She said there'll never be love for me
But you'll have everything
But everything And now no fancy car
Can replace my love
Not even a million women
Could help me feel that love
I sacrifice everything
For this love
On a rainy day in '07
I found an umbrella
Got a taste of it
And made a deal with her For the Holy Love, Holy Love
I made a deal with her
Holy Love, Holy Love
A first and only love
You can't compete with he I'm a rolling stone
There will never be love for me
I'll be searching through forever endlessly
I sit amongst the throne
Inherited enemies
Became royalty
In this dynasty Thought this fancy car
Would replace my love
It took the hands of women
To feel that love
I sacrificed everything
Yet I'm sill prayin' for love
I came across another Virgo
Every one knows
Got another taste
And re-up my deal with her For the Holy Love, Holy Love
A first and only love

Holy Love, Holy Love
A first and only love
You can't compete with her
You can't compete with her
