Chris Palser

are you for real
this your ditch
no it's not you
it's me
that was cold
you're such a bitch
didn't know
you could be so mean
refuse
one last itch
I laugh
and you get crazy
what came next
was so rich
why did you smash my CD'syou take what we made
and called it your own concern was so fake
baby where did it go
what's not the same
guess I'll never know
maybe nothing has changed never loved me at allwhat I didn't say least out loud
think I'm completely clueless I know you did
but it didn't count
because you're such a princess peel for me
cloud my doubt
your soulless body's flawless
make me watch
take me out
get drunk and make me jealousshe knows play shy
won't pay
