Hot Water Music

i've seen heroic falls busted lips from microphone brawls angelic songs sung by all within the hardback walls it never mattered who you were or where you worked it never mattered who you were or what you earned what mattered was what you gave and what you loved what mattered was what you gave and what was learned like one for all for one whatever turn of events may come we all live underground where it stays warm community with commin sounds we work together to break ground it doesnt matter who you are or where you work it doesnt matter who you are or what you earn what matters is what you give and what you love what matters is how you live and if you love
