

You Give Me Love (feat. Maverick Sabre)

Idris Elba

Overwhelmed by your sincerity
I have a friend in you, you have a friend in me
And as I, as I walk these roads, I'm not alone
You open these doors like this is, this is my home

And you give me love, so pure and so free
And you give me all the little things that I could ever need
You give me love and planted your seed
And even through the rain, your smile inside that lies with me

These streets of gold, so much untold
Lead us by the sun
You touch my soul, you show me all
More than enough
This place that I've never been before
You took me in without even not for
I thank you for my place in your heart, yeah

And you give me love, so pure and so free
And you give me all the little things that I could ever need
You give me love and planted your seed
And even through the rain, your smile inside that lies with me

I never know this was this good
And I never know this felt this good
Darling, I said

You give me love, so pure and so free
And you give me all the little things that I could ever need
You give me love and planted your seed
And even through the rain, your smile inside that lies with me

So do give me love
So do give me love
I say do give me love

so do give me love, so pure and so free
And you give me all the little things that I could ever need
You give me love and planted your seed

And even through the rain, your smile inside that lies with me

You give, you give
You give, you give
I say you give me love
