Leading With My Heart

Peacock, Alice

Leading with my heart again
Im leading with my heart again
I dont know if Ill lose or win
But Im leading with my heart againPutting my mind on hold
Yeah, Im putting my mind on hold
I could be risking my very soul
But Im putting my mind on holdI must admit
Theres just something about your kiss
And I cant explain
Wouldnt want to if I could anywayI'm leaping before I look
Yeah, Im leaping before I look
It may not be the same chance you took
But Im leaping before I lookWalking before I crawl
I'm walking before I crawl
I might tumble, I might fall
But Im walking before I crawlI know its dangerous
I know its foolish
But thinking it over
You cant make me do itI must admit
Theres just something about your kiss
And I cant explain
Wouldnt want to if I could anywayIm leading with my heart again
Yeah, Im leading with my heart again
I dont know if Ill lose or win
But Im leading with my heart, Im leading with my heart againOh yeah, I'm leading with my heart again
I might tumble, I might fall, yeah
It doesn't really matter at all
