Just Say Yes

Birgit

It?s not hard to see
The truth will set you free
So you take what you want
And I?ll take what I need
What?s the point in prayin?
If you don?t mean what you?re sayin?
Everything you?ve chased
Is here and now
Love is a reason to exist
So let it all go and just say yes
If it feels right then why resist
Throw down your arms and just say yes
And I was often told
To mine a heart of gold
To find the destiny
Waitin? there for me
There?s no point in demandin?
Total understandin?
When everythin? you?ve craved
Is here and now
Love is a reason to exist
So let it all go and just say yes
If it feels right then why resist
Throw down your arms and just say yes
Just say yes, just say yes
There?s nothin? to be ashamed of
If it?s hurting you?re afraid of Everythin? you need
Is here and now
Love is a reason to exist
So let it all go and just say yes
If it feels right then why resist
Throw down your arms and just say yes
Just say yes, just say yes
Just say yes, just say yes
Just say yes
