

Baby Rocks

Phil Vassar

She's got, 'Honky Tonk Woman' on her license plat
She's got black, leather britches, long, long legs
She's got a booty tattoo, red lips and a tongue
Well, some girls just know how to have fun
Start me up sugar, let the tumbling dice roll
My baby rocks like the Rolling StonesMy little backstage beauty queen knows how to dance
She's got a backwood boogie and a Hollywood glance
Got it shake, shake, shake, shake, shaking baby all night long
Got everybody just dancing along
She's buck wild, she's bad to the bone
My baby rocks like the Rolling StonesLast night I kissed her and she slapped my face
It was her, her twin sister standing in her place, yeah
She just smiled and said, "No harm done"
I hit the jackpot baby 2 for 1
Double down, get Mick and Keith on the phone
My baby rocks like the Rolling StonesMy baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling StonesMy baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
My baby rocks like the Rolling Stones
